"VOLCANO!" RIALTO FILM FULL OF "BIG" MOMENTS

If you like thrills and beetle love on your screen menu, you will like Paramount's picturization of Laurence Eyre's stage play, "Martinière," at Popular Theatre, Saturday night under the nom de cinema of "Volcano!" The thrills are provided by the very realistic eruption of Mount La Poie while the islanders are celebrating their Carnival night. And because of the effects obtained, Director William H. Brown deserves such medals as the movie manufacturers may give to their prize pupils.

Our love interest is amply taken care of by Bebe Daniels as "the girl," Ricardo Cortez, "the boy," and Wallace Berry, as the villain. Miss Daniels is seen as a little French made-over, who returns to the Isle of Martinière after many years spent in a European convent. Her father is on his death bed, and she must see him before he goes.

The ensuing tale is one of much heart tugging, fine acting, excellent atmosphere and many thrills. A superb cast supports the three featured players named above. Arthur Edmund Courtneay gives a corking characterization as Cortez's brother, Brandon Horst is Bebe's father, and Eubule Jensen, her foster-mother, while Edith Edwards, Marjorie Gay and Edith Yorkie are all seen to advantage.

Albert J. Murphy, of Van Wert, Ohio, arrived in the city Friday and is staying at the home of Mrs. Lewis in South Minnesota avenue.

MARY PICKFORD'S NEW FILM IS HER GREATEST

"SPARROWS" GIVEN AS A BENEFIT FOR LOCAL WOMAN'S CLUB

Believing Mary Pickford is back again!

The famous little star, whose seven masterpieces have delighted millions throughout the world, has produced another great picture—which has been called her greatest—and it is coming to Popular Theatre, Monday and Tuesday as a benefit for the Woman's Club.

Mary's newest picture is "Sparrows". It deals with the adventures of a band of youngsters on a baby farm. While there is a little message in the picture, as there is in all good pictures, "Sparrows" first of all is entertainment and the sort of entertainment that Mary Pickford fans like.

Mary is cast as "Mama Mollie," the little girl who mothers the forlorn children on the baby farm. She picks them through many adventures, providing much laughter, many thrills and not a few tears.

That is Miss Pickford's unflinching recipe for an evening's entertainment and in "Sparrows" she is said to have one of the best pictures she has ever made.

The house of "Sparrows" is in a swamp country of a southern state. Here on an island, farm, the little scraps of humanity are kept by a cruel keeper and his wife. How they finally overcome the obstacles placed in their path and find their way to a happier life makes up a story as thrilling and as interesting as can be imagined.

Plenty of comedy lightens the more dramatic scenes and there is action from the opening scenes to the final fade out.

Cast as the ragged little girl, "Mollie," Miss Pickford finds a role that is ideal for her talents. She handles the role with a skilled hand, and outwits the cruel keeper who thinks more of his pigs than the little children.

Miss Pickford is supported by a splendid cast including one of the most remarkable bands of little children ever assembled in a picture.

SPECIAL FROM SANTA CLAUS

(Special to the St. Cloud Tribune)
Santa Claus Headquarters
North Pole, Nov. 20, 1926.

Dear Editor:—
Please go over to the post office and get all my mail from my hundreds of little friends (and his friends, too), and you may print any of these letters that you think should be printed. I want you to tell me all about the good little boys and girls of St. Cloud and Osceola County and just what they need for Christmas.

My workshop has been overworked this year, because there are so many new little brothers and sisters to the little folks that I visited last year that I have had to make several polar bears work overtime on some of the machines that make dolls and jumping jacks and trains and things that boys and girls need. But my bears don't mind. We have lots of snowflakes to make white dresses for the dolls and then there are the sea lions who let us have some of their cuts for playboys and our stock of teddy bears is large this year. Our sunny lelees are fine and we have a lot of seal skin drums that Santa will bring along.

The first letter the editor received this week addressed to Santa Claus was as follows:

— St. Cloud.

Dear Santa:—
I have been a good girl all year. Here are some things I would like you to bring me for Christmas: a box of pink stationery, a Bebe doll, a little round table, tea-set, box of handkerchiefs, sack of chocolate drops, and my games I have not had, also a package of beautiful gum. Do not forget my Daddy and Mother. I thank you.

GOVERNOR TO WELCOME HOSTS ON OPENING WEST COAST ROUTE
TAMPA, Nov. 30.—Hon. John W.
Martin, Governor of Florida, is to head
the group of distinguished Floridians welcoming the 600 or more persons from Chicago and other mid-western cities when the Empire Builders' limousine, special train in two sections, pulls into Perry, gateway of the Gulf Coast section of Florida, on December 3.
Hon. Nathan Mayo, Commissioner of Agriculture, is expected to be another member of the official group, with State Senators and members of the Legislature, representatives of the State College of Agriculture at Gainesville and of the Federal Department of Agriculture, and others interested in the development on a large scale of the agricultural, horticultural, live stock, dairying and poultry raising possibilities of the Florida West Coast region.
The tour of the Empire Builders has been planned to afford opportunity for a large number of persons to obtain first-hand knowledge and a real
"close-up" of the comparatively undeveloped resources and the innumerable avenues of profitable occupation in the Gulf Coast region.
The tour, with its Florida beginning at Perry, is to continue to Homosassa and will cover the greater part of a tract of approximately one million acres, throughout which the most impressive agricultural, fruit growing, live stock, dairying, poultry, raising and general industrial development ever planned for any section of the United States is now getting under way. The Empire Builders are to remain at Homosassa two days and much of the time is to be given over to talks, right on the ground, in regard to developments completed, under way or about to begin. From Ho-mosassa the travelers are to be taken to Tampa on a sight-seeing trip, afterward going to St. Petersburg via the famous Gandy bridge, and over parts of Pinellas county, before starting back to Chicago. At Tampa and St. Peter-burg various civic bodies are to assist in entertaining the Empire Builders.
While in Homosassa the visitors are to be given an opportunity to inspect the new plants of the Florida Liquefied and Propane Company on the Withla-wachee river. In Perry they will be shown the practically completed Perry cut-off, new link of the Atlantic Coast line connecting Monticello and Perry and opening a new and direct through rail line between the Middle West and the Gulf Coast section of South Florida, to be in operation about January 1, next. It is expected that short stops will be made at Gainesville, Intermediate, Brooksville and possibly one or two other points, and the entertainment features will include a real Florida

"GOOD SAMARITAN"
CURED BY BOLD
HOLD-UP
TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 30.—(1936)— Never again will he attempt the "Good Samaritan" role on a public highway in offering a stranger a "lift."
R. E. Wilson, driver of a Tampa taxicab, delivered today.
While rolling along in his truck on the Virginia Park road near Gandy Bridges, Wilson saw three men standing beside a small roadster which apparently had stalled on a small bridge.
One of the men told him they were out of gasoline and Wilson offered to transport him to a filling station.
When they had gone a short distance Wilson's passenger stuck a gun in his rib, relieved him of $27, the day's collections, ran back to his companions, and the trio drove off in their roadster.
CLUB WOMEN FROWN

ORLANDO, Fla., Nov. 30.—(1936)—
The modern species of the alleged "weakly sex" may be proceeding on the theory that by smoking and, perhaps, drinking, they are asserting their masculinity.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA

St. Cloud, Fla.

Dear Friends of the North:

I have been asked if the storm did any damage here or for me. I was very fortunate as my neighbors large tree fell in my yard, but did no damage to mine. The first storm blew some of the trees over and the next one put them back in place, rather freakish. It took part the roof off my friends house about 2:30 a. m. They piled the furniture on the other side, got a lot of men the next morning and put on a new roof, which looks lots better than the old one, no loss without some small gain. Took off a few awnings and so forth, same as it does in the north. From the newspapers I got the impression that everything was laid waste, which is not so, that beautiful Hollywood was destroyed. All the business blocks and hotels stood the storm, but the little ranch section was where it did the worst damage. One little cottage standing on an either side torn to pieces. One of the large hotels had one corner torn and furnishings soiled by water and spray, but the streets and walks are intact and they assured me my lot was just as valuable as ever. They sent me pictures taken a week after the storm, showing all well constructed buildings still standing. The papers near Okonobee. It is particularly told the truth about more. A place except off the earth. The sea wall of that lake breaking. And the waves looked like mountains, while the storm did terrible damage when it struck. Why do they include all Florida. We are not to blame for what the elements do. No more than the north and believe me Florida is not back. People will keep coming as long as this climate lasts. The storm may keep some away this year but more will come to the island, towns than ever. Our city has grown wonderful in last year. Many beautiful homes have been built and any one who wishes to have a home in Florida, will find the best locations are right here in St. Cloud and I think just now this year will be the best time to buy. This is a city well started with a beautiful lake, the best of drinking water, new well 1200 feet deep, electric lights, sewer system being put in and a road town. Beautiful new hotel, nearly finished, corner New York avenue and Eleventh street, where people with plenty of money can find the best of accommodations. Why do people go to the new developments and pay a big price when they will have to wait for years before they have a real town. Might do for our grandchildren. We all say if we had only known two years ago how St. Cloud would advance, we would have bought more. Takes folks with a vision to do things. We are to have a new department store here and several other new stores located here in last few months.

RODEO PERFORMERS VISIT ST. CLOUD LAST NIGHT

St. Cloud people last night, had the opportunity to see some of the performers who will present Sol King's Wild West Rodeo in Kalamazoo, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the Kalamazoo Klamath Club and the Makinson-Carson Post of the American Legion.

In addition to the regular performance which is the same show that was out on in Tampa and Orlando with the single exception of the chariot race for which the Kalamazoo arena is not large enough, there will be a number of contests in which local riders will compete. Several hundred dollars worth of prizes have been donated by the Kalamazoo business men. The contests in which local riders may compete will be roping, steer, bull dogging, steer riding, fancy riding and bucking contests.

Col. King carries with the rodeo a large number of real cowboys and cowgirls and real blackfoot Indians. Among the latter is Chief White-Cloud. There are fifty three wild horses which have just arrived at Kalamazoo some of which has been ridden and the spectators and riders alike may expect a lot of excitement.

FRED B. KENNEY, Cashier

Former Resident Amazed At Our Growth After 12 Years' Absence

Being interviewed by a Tribune reporter upon the early history of St. Cloud, present outlook and future possibilities, Mr. F. E. Eklin spoke as follows:

Coming to Florida from Belfast, Me., the first week in December, 1900, we stopped at Kissimmee over night and next morning landed in the to-be-wonder city, via the lightning express that connects the two places. And what a scene! No railroad station; the St. Cloud hotel, a wooden structure, being the only building of any size; a few frame buildings scattered about the business district; a vast number of tents here and there in all sections of the town looking like an army encampment; the distant tents appearing like outposts ready to give the signal of the approach of the enemy.

Mrs. Mosher, manager of the hotel, succeeded after considerable effort in unloading about twelve men from their commodious quarters in the laundry and our family was installed therein. There was plenty of food in the hotel, so we were happy. Our tent did not arrive, but we built a house on Wisconsin Avenue and were about ready to move when shortly before daylight one morning the hotel caught fire and in one hour nothing was left but burning embers. It surely went quick. We were on the ground floor and just walked out sedately. Not so with others on the second story. One man stood in a window reciting, "Jump, you dang fool, jump!" I yelled, encouragingly. He did and landed with a sprained ankle. Major Taft, 60-year-old veteran, who commanded the artillery at Gettysburg, walked down stairs, while Mrs. Bode slid down a 2x4 rough plank. There was considerable loss of personal effects. Dr. and Mrs. Cooper losing their glasses, while other guests lost diamonds, jewelry, seal skin coats, money and other valuables.

We had planned eating turkey and all the "fixins" at the hotel on Xmas, but our pleasant anticipations were abruptly terminated by this casualty, and instead, we enjoyed our sumptuous Christmas dinner of canned beans, etc. Much were the trials and tribulations of the 1900 pioneers. There was no railroad station then. The first pretense of one was represented by the conductor on the train; the second was a box car, with the conductor as agent; the third was the wooden structure now standing back of the present modern depot.

Tall pine trees and scrub palmetto covered the ground from the west to the east end of town. The streets and avenues had been cleared by the company and were used by pedestrians and vehicles alike, among the latter being some wagons drawn by oxen. There were no automobiles. The only plans known to be in town was owned by Miss Maude Kluney, now Mrs. Ves Quire, who was an accomplished pianist and teacher of music. Union church services were held in a tent on Massachusetts Avenue and the music was furnished by Mrs. Hyer, playing on an old fashioned melodeon.

To one who has participated in these strenuous pioneering days it is bewildering, to say the least, to return after an absence of twelve years.

On arriving at Kissimmee last Tuesday night from California, we were met at the train with the cry, "Taxi for St. Cloud!" Just imagine! Wasn't that a jolt for old pioneers, awakening from a Hip Van Winkle sleep, coming back to the old town. And there was the car, a beautiful new model which purred like a good natured feline as it carried us to the wonder city of St. Cloud. And what a contrast between the then and now.

The streets paved and sidewalks extending in all directions, more than any city we know of with three times the population. Grape fruit, orange and other citrus trees on almost every occupied lot; orange trees 1.5 to 25 feet high, loaded with the golden fruit, surpassing in quality any citrus fruit grown in California; roses and flowers of all varieties growing with tropical luxuriance; substantial houses freshly painted; well kept lawns, beautiful shade trees on streets and avenues, maple, elm, magnolia and other varieties. One magnolia we planted ourselves on Wisconsin Avenue is at least 12 inches in diameter and fully 25 feet in height. The beautiful churches of every denomination, the well lighted and the radiant white ways; the great municipally owned electric and water plants, the latter with its wonderful rotating tank, the water splashing upward and sparkling in the golden sunshine as if in joyful anticipation that its purity provides health and refreshment to the people of such a lovely city.

We have not had time to visit the schools yet, but we know that last winter they were taxed to the utmost and some pupils had to be taken care of in temporary quarters. But the $130,000 bond issue, voted by these most progressive people, will soon take care of the younger generation until the population increases to such an extent that still another increase will be necessary, and that time will surely come in the very near future.

We have been through the new Tribune building and wish to say there is not a city we know of with less than 50,000 population that has such a well equipped printing plant. Two linotypes, with 17 sizes of type, stereotyping room, Cottrell cylinder press, Miehle book cylinder, Miehle automatic feeder, job presses and countless other printing machines and devices for high quality printing. The residents of this wonder city should take pride in having such a magnificent publicity house and the business men should support it to the fullest extent, for their own benefit, and also to help in building up their own home town by so doing.

The State of Florida has been abused and vilified as no other state in this union and jealousy is the reason, but nothing can stop its growth and St. Cloud will continue to hold its own with any interior city in this great commonwealth.

There is one great slogan for the people of this beautiful city to shout and it is: HOUST! HOUST! HOUST! Don't knock. If you must give vent to your surplus energy, kick but don't knock. There is a big difference in the meaning of the two words.

PROSPECTS OF HAVING LIBRARY OPEN EACH DAY

For some time suggestions and plans have been brought forward that our library be kept open each afternoon instead three afternoons as at present.

Since its completion and dedication, the following ladies, among others, have freely given of their time, and have rendered loving and efficient service: Mrs. Clara Rimmus, Mrs. Theodore George, Mrs. Helen Ellis, Mrs. May Cummings, Mrs. Sarah Norris and Mrs. E. M. Holden, keeping the library open to visitors on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons and evenings of each week. Too much cannot be said in praise of them for their service to our town and community. With many others they now feel that the time has come when the library should be open every afternoon, also several evenings in the week. Surely these ladies are in a position to know the requirements of St. Cloud in this respect and it is hoped that in the near future these plans may be fulfilled. St.

Cloud has progressed rapidly in every direction and this is but one more step in advance that we all feel is needed at this time.

"Perfection's even heat is better than gas!"

That's the experience of Mrs. P. B. Haynes, 501 Peachtree St., Lakeland. Her letter follows—

"Though I have gas in my house I use my Perfection stove by preference. I like it for cake baking especially. Better than gas because it gives such steady, even heat. It is fine for any kind of cooking."

Mrs. P. B. Haynes

FOR BEST CAKE baking results, as most women know, steady heat and no disturbance are essential. Perfection Stoves with "Live Heat" Ovens fulfill these conditions. (And for the fast browning of cookies and meringues, they are equally good.)

Uniformly perfect baking is assured, for freshly heated air circulates quickly around the food. Then it's forced out of the oven, carrying excess moisture and odors.

Flame Stays As Set

The flame never varies, once you set it. Put in your cakes, and you need not glance at the flame again! It will not "creep up."

Have your dealer demonstrate the newest Perfection Stoves with "Live Heat" Ovens. You'll probably agree with Mrs. Haynes that they are "better than gas."

NEW EAST COAST DRAINAGE DISTRICT

VERO BEACH, Fla., Nov. 30.—(INS)—A petition for the formation of a drainage district under the state laws to be known as the Sebastian Drainage district is on file in the office of the circuit clerk here.

Approximately 30,000 acres of land extending from the Indian River Farms Drainage District on the north and west of the Sebastian river on the north and west of the Fellows drainage district are included in the proposed district. It comprises 30,000 acres owned by the Sebastian Land Company, which constitute the largest individual holdings in the proposed district.

Owners of property within the territory which it is proposed to drain have been informed that they may appear in January 3, 1937, to show cause why the district should not be organized.

The petition was filed by Judge F. L. Hennings of Fort Pierce, attorney for the sponsors of the proposal. Preliminary engineering work was done by a local concern.

TAMPA'S NEW JAIL RECORD
TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 30.—(INS)—All previous records for the number of prisoners in the new county jail at one time were believed to have been shattered when Sheriff L. M. Hiers made known that a total of 262 persons were enjoying the hospitality of the battle.

Of the total, 80 per cent were sentenced for robberies and thefts, 15 are "in" or are awaiting trial on murder charges, and about 20 are Federal prisoners, the sheriff said, while the rest are serving terms for violation of county and state laws.

PALM BEACH "SPEED LIMIT"
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Nov. 30.—(INS)—Motorists here today were checking over a passage in the city's old statute books dealing with traffic problems in the days when automobiles were more scarce than ice cream in a burning furnace.

One chapter dealing with "Bicycles" prescribed that every cyclist should have sufficient illumination on his wheel at night except "when the moon's light is sufficiently bright"; that a bell should be sounded at least 100 feet in advance of another vehicle or pedestrian, and that seven miles an hour should constitute the speed limit with the exception of turns where four miles should be the maximum.

The law on bicycles was passed on September 12, 1903.

In W. R. Godwin, recorded among the public records of Osceola County, Florida, in Mortgage Book 1 page 22.
WITNESS the Honorable Frank A. Smith, as Judge of the above entitled Court, and my name as Clerk thereof, and seal of said Court at Kissimmee, Osceola County, Florida, on this 1st day of December, A. D. 1936.
